FREE HOUSING INFORMATION RESOURCE SESSIONS AVAILABLE for HOMEOWNERS OR HOMEBUYERS

Mayor Xzavier Montgomery-Wright has been serving as the Foreclosure Vice-Chair for the Maryland Black Mayors, Inc. Foreclosure Committee since September 2009. As a result of MBM's commitment to finding free housing and foreclosure assistance aid for their constituency base, they have successfully created a partnership with HUD certified Home-Free USA to provide FREE housing assistance resource services to homeowners who might be able to avoid foreclosures and short sales of their homes and to apply for modifications of their mortgages that might enable them to maintain their homes, if they are equipped with timely and useful information.

The Town of Brentwood housing information/resource sessions will be held at town hall 4300 39th Place on the dates below. All information sessions, round table, or one-on-one confidential discussions will be conducted by certified HUD counselors/Home-Free USA representatives. Seating is limited, advance registration will be required by calling Town Hall and participants will be accepted on a first come first served basis. Free and Open to the public
